I believe Papua New Guinea, Melanesia, and the South Pacific are still a long way from utopia. But as we strive for a better future, I'll continue to play my part by contributing to understanding as a cartoonist.

I'm grateful to Uni Tavur for providing me with the supportive environment helping me to develop my cartooning. The experience has made me realise the importance of the cartoon in news media. A perceptive cartoon can often reveal more than a good story.

Also a special thanks to David Robie, who was my lecturer and managing editor of Uni Tavur. He has given me much advice and opened me to concepts which on many occasions have worked to my advantage. Thanks, too, to all my friends and wantoks at the University of PNG who have given me ideas, opinions and criticisms. I owe you all a lot.
