

Judgement!

Can you spell it?
With an "e" or without?
American or English spelling
What's your judgement?
We need it
We dislike it
We use it
We know others use it
Judgement
I did it
I do it
I dislike it
I dislike others who do it
Judgement
Ethical judgement
Divine judgement
Considered judgement
Practical judgement
Theoretical judgement
Judgement
I question it
I agree with it
I discuss it
I think about it
Judgement
Judgements are adaptive
Judgements are fluid
Judgements are preconceived
Judgements are all these things!!
You can act on them
You can ignore them
You can try them
You can abhor them
Judgement

Mark Joseph

Lockerbie, Scotland

Correspondence

Mark Joseph, Benreay, 10 Dumfries Road, Lockerbie, DG11 2EF

Email: mark@commonthreadgroup.com

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY

Mark Joseph is an Australian who has lived and worked in the UK for 30 years. He always says his wife, an "Ayrshire girl", kidnapped him with the promise of returning after they were married! Mark has spent time in the armed forces, the ski industry, as a chef, working in childcare, as a corporate trainer; but none of these – with the exception perhaps of being at sea – has intrigued and challenged him the way counselling has. He hopes to see his years out in this fascinating world of working in relationship with people.